

TRIBUTE TO REVEREND DR.
RONALD DURHAM

HON. DONALD M. PAYNE

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask my colleagues here in the U.S. House of Representatives to join me in honoring a very special and dedicated person, Reverend Dr. L. Ronald Durham, who celebrated his 10th Pastoral Anniversary at First Mount Zion Baptist Church in my home city of Newark, New Jersey. Friends gathered on Friday, May 4th, in New Jersey to mark this milestone and to express appreciation for Reverend Dr. Durham's dynamic leadership.

Reverend Dr. Ronald Durham began his ministry at the age of 17. After studying at Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina on full scholarship, he received his Bachelor's Degree in Theology from Evangel Christian University in Louisiana. He holds his Masters of Theology Degree from United Christian Seminary, as well as a Doctor of Divinity and Doctor of Christian Ministry. Dr. Durham was also given an Honorary Doctor of Sacred Theology Degree from the American Bible Institute in Falls Church, Virginia. After 16 years of faithful service to First Baptist Church of Anderson, North Carolina, Dr. Durham joined First Mt. Zion in April of 1991. First Mt. Zion's historical background inspired him to write his Doctoral Thesis entitled "The History of the Black Baptist Church in New Jersey." During his ten years at First Mt. Zion, Pastor Durham has had many notable achievements. Inspired by the recovery story of a good friend, Pastor Durham established the "21 Club," a Drug and Alcohol Education Program in Newark, New Jersey. He has been recognized by the City of Newark on several occasions for his outstanding community service. He initiated the Federal "Weed and Seed" program for Newark, which continues to bring millions of Federal dollars into the city to combat illegal drugs and restore Newark's communities. Other outstanding achievements under his inspirational leadership include: restoration of the 123-year-old sanctuary; purchasing of a church van and bus; refurbishing of a three-family property; and establishment of a stock investment program with Merrill Lynch. He has established the Inspirational Choir, Sanctuary Choir, Community Outreach Ministry; a new Youth Ministry, the Women's Support Ministry, Mother Board, Prayer Band, and the First Mt. Zion Theological Institute. He has worked to promote economic growth among African Americans. Dr. Durham led a group of 75 churches to purchase a 42-acre campground in Pennsylvania. In addition, Dr. Durham recently authored his first book entitled The Secret Power of Prayer, and he writes quarterly lessons entitled The Baptist Layman, a publication of the National Baptist Convention. He is a seminar leader for the National Baptist Congress of Christian Education. He serves as confidant and teacher to pastors and preachers all over the United States through his Internet ministry.

Mr. Speaker, let us offer our congratulations on this special occasion and send our best wishes for continued success to Reverend Dr. Ronald Durham as he pursues his important spiritual mission.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

A SPECIAL TRIBUTE TO MRS.
MARY LOU KUHLMAN ON NA-TIONAL TEACHER'S DAY

HON. PAUL E. GILLMOR

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. GILLMOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize National Teacher's Day and to pay tribute to a very special teacher who has touched many lives. Seldom do we acknowledge the importance of the job or the depth of a teacher's commitment to our children. While many people spend their lives building careers, teachers spend their careers building lives. For this they deserve our support, praise and gratitude.

One teacher in particular deserves special recognition on National Teacher's Day, Mrs. Mary Lou Kuhlman. After 35 years of touching the lives of countless children she will be retiring. This is a true loss for my district and the state of Ohio. The children she has taught will become our future leaders, scientists, and teachers.

Mrs. Kuhlman's long and distinguished career began in the same district where she continues to teach today. A graduate of the Glandorf High School in 1960, she currently teaches at Glandorf Elementary School. She holds a degree from Mary Manse College in Toledo and has completed graduate work at Bowling Green State University. The Martha Holden Jennings Foundation honored Mrs. Kuhlman by naming her a Scholar in 1982. The Foundation seeks to give students a greater opportunity to succeed and to empower teachers. Not only is Mrs. Kuhlman a remarkable teacher, but also greatly involved in countless religious and community service organizations.

Year after year professionals dedicate their lives to the future of America. There is no more important or challenging job than that of our nation's teachers. The job of a teacher is to open a child's mind to the magic of ideas, knowledge, and dreams. Also, teachers are true guardians of the American democracy by instilling a sense of citizenship in the children they teach. Teachers not only educate but also act as listeners, facilitators, role models, and mentors, encouraging our children to reach further than they would have thought possible. Teachers continue to influence us long after our school days are only memories.

Mr. Speaker, I believe that Mrs. Kuhlman's own words ring true on this very special day, "Teaching has always been rewarding, satisfying, and enjoyable. Children are our most important asset. I feel so fulfilled when I can make a difference in a child's life and improve their situation."

CINCO DE MAYO

HON. DAVID E. BONIOR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. BONIOR. Mr. Speaker, this past week-end Mexican-Americans joined our neighbor to the South in celebrating a day dedicated to the recognition of a successful fight for freedom. In Detroit, the Latino community gathered together to celebrate Cinco de Mayo and I want to recognize the Bagley Housing Association, the Mexican Patriotic Committee of Detroit, the El Central newspaper, and the Mexican Town Community Development Corporation for making that celebration possible. Cinco de Mayo is a story of unity, of strength, of faith, and of a country's ability to overcome insurmountable odds.

On May 5, 1862, in the town of Puebla, Mexican General Ignacio Zaragoza led a hastily gathered group of forces to the defeat of the French army, which had not faced defeat in over 50 years. The French outnumbered the Mexican forces by at least two to one and had some of the most superior military training the world had ever seen. Despite all this, the might and spirit of the Mexican people prevailed. After this embarrassing defeat, the French army retreated and took another full year to prepare before they finally took Mexico City. However, Mexican resistance to the French occupation and increasing pressure from the United States forced the French to withdraw after only 3 years.

The battle that took place on Cinco de Mayo was primarily a battle for freedom. However, I believe that this important day has come to symbolize not only the fight for freedom, but the fight for justice as well.

The growing Latino population in Michigan and in the United States enriches our culture in many ways. One can see the Latino influence in our music, our food, our language, and our art. Their commitment both to their faith and their family is a proud heritage. Because Latinos have contributed so much to this country, we must fight to protect the rights of Latino citizens and all Latinos in this country. We must continue this struggle for justice in our workplaces, in our schools, and in our communities because, in the words of Benito Juarez, "sooner or later the cause of rights and justice will triumph."

Just as those brave Mexican soldiers overcame overwhelming odds to defeat the French army in 1862, I believe that our Latino population will use their strength, unity, and faith to overcome any obstacle. We must all work together to stop English-only, anti-immigrant, and anti-affirmative action laws. In recognition of this Cinco de Mayo, let us all remember and be inspired by Cesar Chavez who said, "Once social change begins, it cannot be reversed. You cannot uneducate the person who has learned to read. You cannot humiliate the person who feels pride. You cannot oppress the people who are not afraid anymore."

MISSOURI TEACHERS OF THE YEAR

HON. W. TODD AKIN

OF MISSOURI

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. AKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of the "Teachers of the Year" selected in the Second Congressional District of Missouri for their outstanding efforts to educate our children.

A quality education is critical to a child's future. Without good education, a child has no future. Together with parenting and faith, education literally defines a child's future. Among all school-based factors, teacher quality is the most important; that some teachers are much more effective than others with similar students; and that teacher quality may specially affect the achievement of disadvantaged students.

The teachers I rise to commend here today are individuals who have made and are making a difference in the lives of children and in their communities. Quality teachers provide experience, patience, diligence and understanding to the classroom.

In conjunction with National Teacher Appreciation Day, I would like to commend the following teachers who have been recognized by their colleagues for their contributions to education.

RECOGNIZING MR. STEVEN ENGELHAUPT

HON. PATRICK J. TIBERI

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. TIBERI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to congratulate and honor a young Ohio student from my district who has achieved national recognition for exemplary volunteer service in his community. Steven Engelhaupt of Dublin, has been named as one of my state's top honorees in The 2001 Prudential Spirit of Community Awards program, an annual honor conferred on the most impressive student volunteers in each state, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Mr. Engelhaupt is being recognized for providing, over the past three years, new toys to thousands of children in central Ohio through the Firefighters for Kids toy drive in Columbus. He began the project by collecting used toys and repairing and cleaning them for resale. The cash Mr. Engelhaupt received was then used to purchase new toys which were given to needy children. To date, his efforts have generated over $24,000 in cash and additional in-kind contributions.

In light of numerous statistics that indicate Americans today are less involved in their communities than they once were, it's vital that we encourage and support the kind of selfless contribution this young citizen has made. Mr. Engelhaupt should be extremely proud to have been singled out from such a large group of dedicated volunteers. I applaud Mr. Engelhaupt for his initiative in seeking to make his community a better place to live, and for the positive impact he has had on the lives of others. His actions show that young Americans can—and do—play important roles in our communities, and that America's community spirit continues to hold tremendous promise for the future.

THANKS TO OUR TEACHERS

HON. JERRY MORAN

OF KANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Mr. MORAN of Kansas. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize our nation's exceptional teachers.

7445

Today, as part of National Teacher Day and Teacher Appreciation Week, The National Teachers Hall of Fame will announce their 2001 inductees. Congratulations to this year's inductees: Ronald Foresos, Dr. Emiel Hamberlin, Mitsuye Conover, James Quinlan, and Ellen Kempler, for their hard work and dedication to our nation's students.

The mission of The National Teachers Hall of Fame, located in Emporia, Kansas, is to recognize and honor exceptional teachers and the teaching profession. As part of this mission, The National Teachers Hall of Fame sponsors an annual teacher recognition program open to all K-12 teachers throughout the country. For the past 10 years, The National Teachers Hall of Fame has provided a fitting tribute to our nation's most important profession. On June 23, the Hall of Fame will induct its 10th class and welcome many of the 45 NTHF members back to Emporia to celebrate a 10-year reunion.

I would also like to recognize all educators for their contributions to our communities—and to thank those special teachers who have made a difference in my life. Thank you Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Pruter, and Mr. McCauley and all the others who educated me with facts and figures and instilled in me a love of learning.

Few other professionals touch so many people in such a lasting way. Teachers fill many roles, as listeners, explorers, role models, motivators, and mentors. Educators make a difference in each of our lives. Today, and everyday, I would like to say thank you.

HONORING AVALON FIRE CHIEF
JACK T. GOSLIN ON HIS RETIREMENT

HON. JANE HARMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 8, 2001

Ms. HARMAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to pay tribute today to Jack T. Goslin, who will be retiring as the City of Avalon Fire Chief on May 31st. Chief Goslin began his career 43 years ago as a firefighter in the United States Air Force and has served the City of Avalon for over 39½ years. Significantly, Chief Goslin is the longest serving fire chief in Los Angeles County history.

His length of service to Avalon and his love for the seaside town is unmatched. He will be missed but not forgotten by all of those friends and colleagues who will gather on May 15th to wish him the very best for a long, active and healthy retirement. I join the citizens of Avalon in wishing Chief Goslin well. He has served the community with honor and distinction and a tenure that will likely be unsurpassed.
